Good Evening,

My name is Zoulikha Sassi. While I was visiting my friend Lucy, I had an unfortunate incident, and suffered a stroke.

Fortunately, Dr. Sabino Scarpelli's help was like an angel sent from God.

When Lucy telephoned him, he emphatically insisted that she bring me to the hospital immediately.

I am alive today, thanks to him. I hope he is in Paradise now. I will never forget what he has done for me.

I want to thank him and his entire family; and also Lucy, who stayed with me every moment during the entire ordeal.

Thanks a million!
